It gives some interesting facts respecting the price of gas elsewhere, it has been head to the price of gas elsewhere, it has been head to urge the reduction of the price from $10 to 40 cents a thomsand. In Manchester, England, where the numicipal corporation owns the gas works, the gas was sold last year at 64 cents, and a profit of $294,000 was made. At Whitehaven, which is in a coal region, gas is supplied at 64 cents. In fourteen principal towns of England, the price varies from $8 to 96 cents. Moreover, under the English law, there is a safeguard against impurities in the gas. The company is obliged to furnish gas of a certain illuminating power. We do not copy these statements to encourage emigration to England. The Press comes to the conclusion that the price comes to the conclusion that missionaries are specially acceptable offerings. The districts which had been conquered, and, as was supposed, Christianised and reconciled to English rule and English customs, are now in arms against the English. If the war was so difficult to conduct, when only half as many natives were fighting as are now prosecuting bostilities with the most infuriating rage, how long and how much treasure and blood will it take to put down the fierce New Zeal anders?

Among those who are named in connection with the next Governorship of Pennsylvania are Hons. J. K. Moorehead, Morton McMichael, W. W. Ketchum, John Covode, Francis Jördan, Gen. Herron and Col. A. J. McClue.

German Speaking Class. German Speaking Class.

THE UNDERSIGNED, A GERMAN
Teacher in this city, finding it very necessary to give those who have studied and are studying the German grammar, an opportunity to improve also in speaking that language, intends to organize a German Speaking Class, next September, for young gentlemen and ladles, and if it should be required, to children also, but separately.

Those who wish to join such a class, are requested to see him at his residence in North Wheeling, opposite Mr. Irwin, to make the necessary arrangement. Wheeling, opposite Mr. Irwin, to make the necessary arrangement.
